FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This case has been referred to the undersigned magistrate judge for pretrial management pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and an order of reference from the District Court. For the reasons stated herein, the complaint should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

Background

On March 6, 2014, Plaintiff filed the instant complaint in which he alleges that Defendant Casarin, a Dallas County jail guard, punched him and spit on him. See Dkt. No. 3 at 4. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages and injunctive relief. See id.

On preliminary review of the complaint, the Court found that additional facts were necessary to determine whether Plaintiff stated a claim cognizable in federal court. On April 3, 2014, a questionnaire was issued to Plaintiff to obtain the additional factual information. See Dkt. No. 9. Plaintiff was ordered to file his answers to the Court's questions by May 5, 2014. He was admonished that "[f]ailure to file answers to the questions may result in the dismissal of the complaint for failure to prosecute pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).” Id. at 1.

Plaintiff has failed to return answers to the Court’s questions, despite filing a filed a one-page document complaining about the Court’s Filing Fee Order. See Dkt. No. 10.

Legal Standards

A district court has the authority to dismiss a case for want of prosecution or for failure to comply with a court order. See FED. R. CIV. P. 41(b); see also Larson v. Scott, 157 F.3d 1030, 1031 (5th Cir. 1998). This authority “flows from the court’s inherent power to control its docket and prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases.” Boudwin v. Graystone Ins. Co., 756 F.2d 399, 401 (5th Cir. 1985). Such a dismissal may be with or without prejudice. See Long v. Simmons, 77 F.3d 878, 879-80 (5th Cir. 1996). A dismissal with prejudice is appropriate only if the failure to comply with the court order was the result of purposeful delay or contumacious conduct and the imposition of lesser sanctions would be futile. See id. at 880; see also Berry v. CIGNA/RSI-CIGNA, 975 F.2d 1188, 1191 (5th Cir. 1992).

Analysis

Despite the warning that this case could be dismissed for failure to comply with the Court’s order, Plaintiff failed to file answers to the Court’s questions. Information regarding the facts underlying Plaintiff’s complaint is necessary in order for this case to continue. The inability to proceed with this litigation is directly attributable to Plaintiff’s failure to comply with the Court’s order. Dismissal is warranted under these circumstances. See Wiggins v. Management and Training Corp., No. 3:03-cv-1547-L, 2003 WL 22259080, at *1 (N.D. Tex. Sept. 25, 2003), rec. adopted, 2003 WL 22415739 (N.D. Tex. Oct. 20, 2003) (dismissing complaint for failure to answer written interrogatories); accord Champagne v. Zoley, No. 3:08-cv-2264-D, 2009 WL 980138 (N.D. Tex. Apr. 10, 2009).

Recommendation

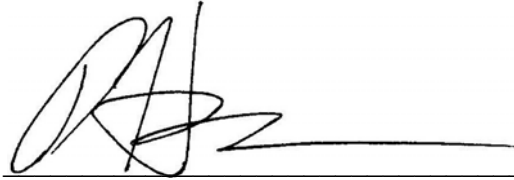

Unless Plaintiff files answers to the Court's questions within 14 days of the date of this recommendation, the Court should dismiss Plaintiff's case without prejudice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

If Plaintiff files answers to the Court's questions within 14 days of the date of this recommendation, the Court should refer the case back to the undersigned magistrate judge for further review.

A copy of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's findings, conclusions, and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Servs. Auto. Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
